CS19000 Tools Home Page for Fall 2013

CS19000 Tools offers an introduction to setting up and learning how to efficiently use each of the 3 main operating systems, including UNIX.

The course is an effort between the CS Department and the Undergraduate Student Board (USB)

Night Session PPT

CS191 Night Session Powerpoint

Course Personnel

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Instructor</th>
<th>Teaching Assistants</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Buster Dunsmore</td>
<td>Tyler Hoffman</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Brittany Vacchiano</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Contact Information Please email cs190-tools-ta@cs.purdue.edu with any questions.

Time/Location

Large Lecture

Time: Friday, 11:30-12:20 PM
Location: Class of 1950 Lecture Hall 224 (CL50 224)

Recitations

Time(s): Monday-Friday, Varying Times
Location(s): LWSN B146, B148, B158, B160 and HAAS G040, G056
Note: You must attend the recitation you are assigned to

From: http://courses.cs.purdue.edu/ - Computer Science Courses

Permanent link: http://courses.cs.purdue.edu/cs19000:fall13:start

Last update: 2013/08/27 23:29