CS190 Tools Fall 2014

CS190 Tools offers an introduction to setting up and learning how to efficiently use each of the 3 main operating systems, including UNIX.

The course is an effort between the CS Department and the Undergraduate Student Board (USB)

Course Personnel

Instructor	Teaching Assistants
Buster Dunsmore	Kirby Kohlmorgen
	Scott Opell

Contact Information Please email cs190-tools-ta@cs.purdue.edu with any questions.

Time/Location

Large Lecture

Time: Wednesday, 10:30–11:20 AM
Location: Wetherill Lab of Chemistry 200 (WTHR 200)

Recitations

Time(s): Monday-Friday, Varying Times
Location(s): LWSN B146, LWSN B148, LWSN B158, and HAAS 257
Note: You must attend the recitation you are assigned to

Piazza

We will be using Piazza to facilitate discussions for the class. See the top sidebar link for instructions on Piazza. Once you joined the class, you can use the link on the lower sidebar link and simply log on.

Sign up by visiting CS190 on Piazza.

From:
https://courses.cs.purdue.edu/ - Computer Science Courses

Permanent link:
https://courses.cs.purdue.edu/cs19000:fall14:start

Last update: 2014/08/24 12:27